into past has been declining, and the world and her friends seeing the cause to some inescapable or fatal disease, that has been gradually, but surely, creeping upon her. It was a fatal disease, not of the flesh.

The man who had pledged at the altar and before his God, to be faithful, who had solemnly vowed to ever love, cherish and protect the trusting being at his side, who placed her life in his keeping, in the hour of temptation forgot that obligation in the exhilarating influence of the wine cup; his loving wife, his dear children, his happy home, all must be sacrificed to the greedy love and passion for the intoxicating cup.

The wife that first welcomed him home with joy and pleasure, now hails his advent with fear and trembling. The terrible thought that him whom she honored and almost worshipped; him whom she loved to think of as the noblest and best of men, to have fallen so low, so debased, so degraded, never praying for her heart. Her noble husband as a drunkard, and she a drunkard's wife. Even her children are taunted by their schoolmates, and are nobody—because their father is a drunkard. None feel the disgrace more keenly than the forsaken but devoted wife. Day by day she droops and falls until at last death comes to her relief, and she is borne hurried to an early grave.

Thus has that husband, by his own folly and the dissipated life he has led, rendered his young wife and we assure, the light of heaven he is as guilty of the crime of murder as the man who deliberately kills his victim with the knife or pistol. Well may the children of such a parent exclaim with the author of the beautiful touching poem, "The Drunkard's Daughter,"

"Go tell what I have felt,
Go tell what I have borne—
Sink back the blow a father dealt,
And the cold, proud world's scorn.
Thus struggle on from year to year,
Try not to feel the stinging tear,
Be silent as I have been,
Implore, beseech and pray,
Sweep the besotted heart to oblivion,
The downward course to stay—
Be cast with bitter curse aside,
Try prayers, but prayers, thy tears denied,
Till on I leave the howl!
Hate is a fever—wound—
Floods, abhor—my very soul
With strong desire is stirred Whence I see, or hear, or tell
Of that drunkard, murderer!"

BELLEVILLE, SATURDAY, DEC. 2.

FEAST READINGS.—Those faithful evening entertainments, the penny readings, after a long and what appeared to us, an unaccountable intermission, are now being revived by the Working Men's Temperance Association, through whose instrumentality they were first introduced to Belleville, and to Canada. The first of the present series was originally held on Tuesday, 28th ult., but the tea meeting of the U. P. Church taking place on that evening, the reading was postponed till Friday, 1st inst. The chair was occupied by Mr. Palm, President W. M. T. A., after a short inaugural address by Professor Bell, Mr. W. L. Hyne read in capital style, a humorous Scotch poem, "about the charming of a bottle." He was succeeded by Mr. Allan McCre, who read, with mingled feeling and humor, an Irish poem, entitled "Shane O'Brien." Professor Bell then gave one of his favorite pieces, "Watkins' exquisite 'Ballad of Cassius'." The reading was originally of a high order, and wound up the whole by reading an example of the late Judge Halliwell's inimitable bold and caustic humor, entitled "The Old Man and the Sea," which kept the audience in convulsions of laughter during its continuance. The company were unfortunately deprived of the expected pleasure of listening to the sweet strains of Prof. Armstrong and his sons, their assistance being required at the musical soiree at Albert College; but they have kindly promised to give some of their attractive performances on coming on cases.

Our Paris Letter.

(From our own Correspondent.)

PARIS, Nov. 11.
I purchased twenty-five journals yesterday, and have been reading them with great desire in the way of Government. I have conversed with several citizens in the same end, and have failed to discover any common sense among the masses. Each party has its own divisions, and unless something like a miracle intervenes to restore the nation with wisdom and authority, tempered with civil war, it is a certainty before the "coming dictator" enters on the duties of his office perhaps twenty years of life. Liberty is an every tongue—but it is that kind described by Danton—"you above and your opponent below." Forgetting that the French are his countrymen, and can afford to smile at the treatment he receives. Not more than one journal thoroughly backs him up, and these do not ridicule him first; they tolerate him. Some newspapers call him "Westbrook the First"—forgetting that in this respect he is the representative of 36 millions of people. He is compared to the blind elephant, aged 74, on the East India Company's ship, who, having been blind since birth, was asked by a sailor to describe the elephant. He said, "it is like a wall." Another, who had touched the tail, said, "it is like a rope." A third, who had touched the ear, said, "it is like a fan." A fourth, who had touched the leg, said, "it is like a pillar." A fifth, who had touched the side, said, "it is like a wall." A sixth, who had touched the back, said, "it is like a wall." A seventh, who had touched the head, said, "it is like a wall." A eighth, who had touched the foot, said, "it is like a wall." A ninth, who had touched the tail, said, "it is like a rope." A tenth, who had touched the ear, said, "it is like a fan." No. 187.

Ireland.

Colonel the Right Honorable William Monson succeeds the deeply lamented Earl of Duane in the office of County Lieutenant.

Francis Quinn, barrister, was on October 28th sentenced at the Dublin Commission to six months imprisonment for the manslaughter of a porter in a public house while in a state of intoxication.

A Dublin correspondent states that Mr Justice George is seriously ill, and hardly expected to recover. In event of his death there would be a seat for the Attorney General in the Court of Queen's Bench.

The works for the completion of the Kilkree & Kilrush Railway are to be at once commenced under the supervision of Mr. P. Coffey, C. E., Kilkree. The terminus of the line in Kilkree is to be at the end of the town, near the bridge, and a branch will extend from thence to the quay, at Cappa, to accommodate the water traffic.

On October 29, a man named Connor residing at Corr Hill, in the neighborhood of Ballycumber, was fired at and dangerously wounded. It is said that three men confronted him as he was going to Mass and on his refusing to promise to give up some land, at once committed the deed. Connor was carried to the County Infirmary at Tallamore, where he now lies.

The Registrar General reports that the number of births recorded in Ireland in the second quarter of the year was 40,858.

number of deaths 22,466, and the number of emigrants, 327,700, and from these figures it is inferred that the population has decreased by 14,800 in the three months. Emigration is less by 2,765 than in the corresponding quarter of last year.

Two children were burned at Killeen near Duggan's, county Waterford, on Nov. 10. They were put to bed by their mother, who left them alone in the house and went to visit a neighbor. It is supposed that the boys got playing with matches and set the bed on fire. The flames spread and the house was destroyed with all its inmates.

A man named Joseph Graham applied for a warrant against his niece, Mary Moanahan, who attempted to poison herself. It appeared that she had some quarrel with her mother, and in a fit of passion drank a lotion which the complaint forbidding to his back. It appeared Monaghan had to be conveyed to Meriden Hospital, where she is at present detained. A witness said he did not see her arrest.

On Tuesday, the 54th October, there was a picturesque town of Colono, was scene of great rejoicings and festivities the return of the Right Hon. Viscount Massereene and Ferrard to his ancestral residence, at Oriel Temple. On occasion the celebration of the happy auspicious birth of an heir to his lordship and illustrious house came off the most joyful manifestations by the people of Colono and the tenantry lordship's estate.

At the Cork Recorder's Court, on the 11th ult., a coal barge named Concorant and its crew were sent under a warrant to the County Gaol, for the offence of being without a licence to trade. The employment of the St. Mary's farmyard, Synnott, Clontarf.

and men were sentenced to a fortnight's imprisonment for having taken part in a lawful assembly on the same occasion. The affair arose out of a strike among the heavers, and an attempt to prevent work from unloading one of the company's vessels.

At the recent Quarter Sessions at Coleraine, a land case was tried before Barron, Chairman of the county. Mr. Armstrong of Ballybeg was charged by Mr. Ellis, containing 24 Irish acres, was ordered to be evicted. Mr. Armstrong claimed compensation for disturbances the Ulster tenant right custom. His ship, after pointing out the nature of the claim for disturbance, awarded a sum of £288, or £12 per acre; and said he would give more only he considered the farmer had been treated like a stepson. Mr. Munroe appeared for the landlord.

REMEDY FOR CHOKED CATTLE.—The family that I have occasion to use was given by an old drover, who was well-versed in the efficiency. I had been from home through the day, and just returned at evening, in passing the cow stable, I said to the men that was leading my horse, "It seems all one of the same sort of a fever." In reply, he said that he had very particular notice to take of the animal, and that he had seen a large one, and having them through the root cutter. I entered the stable, and, sure enough, a nice little cow was lodged in the throat, and the cow's head immediately began to beat. A cow horse's halter was put on her, and the horse thrown over a beam, and her nose was exposed, an old tin dinner bowl was placed over her mouth, a common saw was used as a lever, and the cow's head was pulled up, and the horse born. In the stable there.

BEAKFAST.—KEP'S COCOA.—(GRATIFYING COMMENT.)—The very agreeable character of this food has rendered it a general favourite. The Civil Service has taken to it with a regularity which is a strong recommendation by its homogeneous preparation, of course never been surpassed by any other food. It is a most valuable source of the natural nutriment, and by its knowledge of the nutriment, and by its well-selected cocoa, Mrs. Keppel has proved our breakfast food to be the most valuable and the most palatable. It is a most valuable food, as many heavy doctors will tell. Medicinal purposes, it is a most valuable food, as many heavy doctors will tell. Town Council.

Monday, Dec. 4.

The Council met pursuant to adjournment.

Present.—His Worship the Mayor; Messrs.

Smith, Patterson, Flint, Hope, Hall,

Nancy, Vandusen and Foster.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The following petitions were read and referred: From J. Taylor, Jr., respecting heating the batter market, and offering to put a ceiling

on it and heat it for $100.

From R. B. Borne for $100 advance on salary

as engineer of the steam fire engine.

From the Gas Company for the sum of $5000 agreed to be given (by resolution of a public meeting) in their carrying out the system, the same to be written off the mortgage held by the town on the Company's property.

From James Kennedy and others, regarding the establishment of a monthly fair.

From A. Foster, to be allowed to retain the lease of the wood market on same terms as last year.

A communication was read from the Town

Council of Naperville, asking the Council to join in a petition for a Bill against the practice of throwing sawdust into rivers.

Several accounts were presented and referred to the Finance Committee.

The Committee on Finance, recommending that a Monthly Fair be established, and that the Town Solicitor be instructed to draw up a By-law for that purpose.

The Finance Committee, recommending

that sundry accounts be paid, that the time for collection of taxes be extended until the 15th January next, and that the non-resident taxes be adjusted by the Collector, Solicitor

and Treasurer.

The Harbor Master, as follows:

The navigation closed at the port on Tuesday, the 30th of last month; therefore, it may be said the business of the season has been closed as far as Exports and Imports are concerned.

The amount collected on Exports since opening of navigation to the close of the same, is—$3817.95

The amount collected on Imports—$22.24

Making a total of—$3840.19

Of the above amount I have paid into the hands of the Treasurer the sum of $2735.00

leaving a balance of $1105.19 in my hands.

I may also state that I expect to add a considerable sum to the above from duty on new logs now having been paid.

I may also state that there is a large quantity of sawdust on the river, which will not be down this winter.

The Fire, Water and Gas Committee,

that the Gas Company has been in default of its obligation for gas for street lamps, and that they had offered a rejection, to take effect after 1st January

next, of $4 per lamp per annum, which proposition the Committee recommended to be accepted; that an advance of $1000 asked by Fire Co. No. 2 be paid as a portion of the amount to be paid by the Council of 1878.

STOP THAT COUGH.

Don't delay. One week, one day, and it may be late. Consumption with its long train of evil is waiting to carry you to the long

home of the many victims who have gone before.

How can you stop it? Where is the remedy?

Allen's Lung Balm can produce more effective relief than any other article for the purpose. It is sold everywhere by Druggists and general storekeepers. Read the following extract from a letter received from Mr.

S. H. Bessie, well-known merchant of Ontario.

"Dear Sir:—Last autumn I was suffering from a cough which would not go away, and produced a distressing cough for which I gave trial to a number of cough remedies, but without any benefit. I at last tried one bottle of Allen's Lung Balm, and found it to be the able to stop the cough almost immediately and to produce a perfect cure in a short time."

Your truly, S. H. Bessie.

Our Paris Letter.
(From our own Correspondent.)

PARIS, Nov. 18.
We are in full revolt here. A journal having failed to abolish the clergy demands the suppression of the laity. Their tulle neckties and black suits constitute a double outrage, and interfere with the gravity of legal affairs.

The "order" is a relic of the middle ages, an institution of inequity tainted with monarchy, and at best only a school of public demonstration. In France a man strikes the legal profession as a stepping stone to political office. He never dreams of making a fortune by clients. When a law student, he is the first in every assembly; when called to the bar, he speaks to the country, not to the Judge. The Court is his first tribunal.

If he writes for the press, his articles are reprinted; if he appears at a Club he instructs the people how to behave.

"To swallow androgens are they" he laments, and as their clerical robes are shown that the "whole duty of man" is to read the law, and become the humblest of every order.

After a coup d'Etat, he will interpret the law as requested, and when empires have been swept away, he will hold office in the bosom of a pure morality. There are cases in point. The "political" lawyer desecrates to be abolished, but a few are necessary to the order and preserve the shells for litigation.

Many of the weak points in French character arise from one of its recollections—that of the people being admirable talkers. But the answers of day are a degenerate "dramas of words," has supplanted the flow of wit of that agreeable mixture of epigram, knowledge and regulated gaiety. There are no solid rows. The few that follow the old fashion have a hollow but an older generation. The young people frequent drawing rooms where scandal and know-nothing reign. The green-room of the theatres and the boudoir of the demi-monde. Luncheon suppers with interludes for guests, attract the weakness of the nation still. The empire has been the cause of this moral and social deterioration, and so has inflicted a greater calamity on the nation than the disaster of Sedan.

Madame Thiers and her sister labor industriously to bring the nation back to "remember the days of old," by enlightening the minds of the intellectual worth of France. Yet few hours at the Presidency of the nation is voted support, and regrets are stated that the inmates of the Tuilleries are no more, and that the Princess Metetrich has not yet commenced to pour out her Johanna.

The French speak too much and do too little. The "perfect cure" for the country is in a now fashionably trumpeted forth—obligatory education. An excellent cry, but no sound one. It is an excellent cry, but no sound one. It is an excellent cry, but no sound one.

The impulse must come from the Universities as it has in Germany; but in France, university education is relatively in a more advanced state than that of the nation, and the condition of the masses. The various faculties seem to ignore the exact solution; they aim to make a nation of dilettanti, of wit; there is nothing solid, practical, contemporary; all is ruse and intrigue. Superstition is an endemic, and hence that levity and imprudence which when practiced, conduct to Sedan, and deliver Paris to the origin of a Commune.

The nation followed the First Napoleon from the Pyramids to the Kremlin, and would have accompanied the Third to Sancho. But for the love of war, but for victory—for a victory with triumphal entrance, streets thronged with banners, music, the city keys brought forth on a silver. Such glitter, and here all that glitters is glory—be it even tropics and trash. It makes a noise too, hence drums and bugles, and here all that glitters is glory—be it even tropics and trash. They Resolved to Parade next Sunday.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The Secretary of State has received advice from Havana, which places the situation of the Spanish Government in the view of the students at Havana recently, as still more offensive and dangerous light to the Cuban, chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, has been admitted respecting the situation of the Cuban Government.

The President said at the end of his speech that he would not take any action in reference to Cuba at its annual to the holidays.

New York, Dec. 11.—A stormy meeting of the International was held this evening. A motion to adjourn next Sunday was carried amid the loudest applause. Delegates were appointed to meet on Governor Hoffman to request him to make the police order for forbidding the parade, and to ask state protection. The meeting broke up amid wild cries of "Vive la Commune," "Vive la International."

DESPATCHES TO 4 P. M.

London, Dec. 10.—The strike of the telegraph employees is still kept up. Business on many lines is pretty driven, and the public are beginning to complain.

New York, Dec. 10.—The Ocean Bank has been thrown out of the clearing house.

Look Before You Leap.

The St. John (N. B.) Globe says that on Sunday night last, an estimable and lovely young lady, residing in the upper part of Orleans, was about to retire, she had just down stairs in considerable light. Her father was called and the premises were inspected. The couch was found occupied by a stranger, who appeared to have been on a spree. Awakened from his sleep he declared it was his bed, which he had paid for, and all he asked was to be left alone. "Without ceremony he was dismissed. It would seem that he had crept into the house early in the evening, crept quietly up stairs, pulled off his boots and dozed, and retired. It was not until dawn that the police. This appears to be a case of a drunkard, a few nights ago, he entered Mr. Shampers's boarding house. Had not went to bed in precisely the same way.

Postal Cards for the United States.

Congress assembled Monday and listened to the President's message. In the Senate yesterday Mr. Blair, of Missouri, offered a resolution to inquire of the President why he had proclaimed Martial Law in some of the Southern States. It was voted down. In the House a bill was introduced to instruct the Postmaster-General to issue postal cards, same as ours and same rate. The discussion of the bill authorizing the purchase by the Government of the various telephone lines of the country to use them in the postal service was brought up. The bill will be considered by the Committee on Commerce or Postal Affairs. The Western Union Line asks $250,000 for the property of their company. This discussion disclosed the fact that there are in the United States 5,000 telegraph offices, 7,000 employees, and 7,700 miles of wire.

Effect of Cure and Food on the Quality of Wool.

The quality and softness of wool depend more than is generally supposed on the care and proper feeding of the sheep. When sheep are poorly fed and uncomfortably housed, the wool is hard and defective in strength and elasticity. When irregularly fed, the wool is of uneven quality, and the sheep become out of condition, a break in the regularity of the staple occurs, a weak spot is produced, and the value of the fleece is depreciated as much as twenty-five per cent. at once. A few years ago the winter made an experiment in feeding sheep, which resulted as follows: Sixteen full-blooded Leicester wethers were put in two flocks of eight each. One lot was fed on corn, fodder, cut and mixed with ground feed (corn, oats and rye), and the other two hauled mixed with four quarts of the feed was given twice a day. Every day was fed on corn, and the sheep were kept in a dry, airy, and comfortable house. The result was that the sheep fed on corn and fodder were in better condition, and the wool was of a higher quality than the wool of the sheep fed on the mixed feed.

The Very Latest.

DESPATCHES TO 4 P. M.

London, Dec. 12.—A special despatch to the President from St. Petersburg, states that yesterday the Czar and Czarina were involved in a public dispute with the Prince of Bismarck, Minister of the German Empire in Russia.

A very singular note has just been received by the English Court of St. James.

It appears that in 1790 a paper was started in London called the Evening Mail, under the management of Mr. Walter in alliance with the use of the printing press.

Mr. Walter brought with him to England a large number of the original contracting parties, and the defendants merely relied upon the claim which three-quarters of a century's possession had given them of "the right of the press."

When the case was heard, the judge, who was a man of great ability, decided in favor of the defendants.

The publication of the Mail has been suspended.

New discoveries have been made in Great Britain.

A small island in Aberlouthie, a circle of stones between 80 and 90 feet in diameter, was lately found beneath the surface of the ground.

The stones were found in a row, and the layer of black soil was reached, containing wooden shafts and calcined bones, and flat stones placed continuously.

Below the stones was an artificial flooring, formed of the trunks of oak and other trees.

In the spring of the year, in the same neighborhood, a trout was brought a canoe of ancient make.

The "untrustworthiness" of many so-called practical facts was seriously exemplified during the past summer by a surgeon in one of the London districts, who observed that the addition of delicate acid salts to the sprinkling water accelerated the drying of the streets!

Mr. Wank states that in the summer of 1870, the Westminster district was watered with a solution of Mr. Cooper's salts, and in both seasons the saving or expense was sufficient to leave a considerable profit to the patient and to the water.

Twenty water carts were formerly required to sweep eleven carts do the work, and the streets are in a better condition than before.

Good Food and Plants of Ice, produce the same effect upon a person who has been starved as the Peruvian Balm.

Afternoon Despatches.
The Very Latest.
DESPATCHES TO 4 P. M.
LONDON, Dec. 20, 5 p.m.—The doom bell from Washington today, reports the Price of a little less quiet last night, but the market unchanged.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 20, 5 p.m.—The steamship Haskell, from New York, has arrived.
MANILA, Dec. 20, 5 p.m.—Sagasta has succeeded in completing the formation of his cabinet.
With one exception, the names of the Ministers are the same as announced yesterday. Admiral Tosade and Señor Sagasta, at the same deliberation, decided to accept their portfolios. Señor Groszau finally and permanently declined the Ministry of Justice, and his place was taken by the same officer in the last cabinet. The Ministry, with Señor Sagasta at its head, then waited on the King, and in his presence took their oaths of office. The new government is formed, with the exception of the elevation of Rizo Zorilla to the position of the Chief.
LONDON, Dec. 20, 5 p.m.—The Fall Mill Gazette has a special telegraph from Windsor which represents that the report that the Queen had been ill, and that she was in the hands of the physicians at Windsor Castle, from Sandringham today, are quite as favorable; that the pulse of the Prince of Wales is higher, and that there is considerable anxiety at the Court.
The publishers of the "Daily Telegraph" are before Court, charged under the Act for the suppression of seditious publications, with exposing to view and circulating obscene literature.
The accused were admitted to bail.

Children whose brain development is an unusually large in comparison with the body, are most frequently dazed, and for a premature resting place. Why is this? Simply because the functions of the body are too large to supply the waste going on in the brain constantly upon active intelligence. Follows Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites is so prepared that it does the vital principle directly to the brain while it assists in developing a vigorous and robust body.

If your home is damp, cold or galled, you should use Johnson's Antiseptic Liniment: wash
the part with malleable soap and warm water, rub
dry with a clean cloth, then apply the Liniment,
rub it well with the hand.
Have the readers of the INTELLIGENCER use
this of Johnson's Antiseptic Liniment: wash
the part with malleable soap and warm water, rub
dry with a clean cloth, then apply the Liniment,
rub it well with the hand.

Scientific men of science have discovered the electricity and magnetism are developed in the system from the action of the brain. This accounts for the difficulty, low spirits, and lack of energy
a person feels when the vital current becomes reduced. The Nervous Symp., a prototype of the human system, is the only medicine in the market, and is the only one in which it is possible for it to enter the circulation.

COMMERCIAL.

MONEY MARKET AS REPORTED AT

THE EXCHANGE OFFICE.

TORONTO, Dec. 22.

The market to-day presented its usual bustling aspect when the holidays are in prospects. Outside the farmers made a grand display of meat, fowl and vegetables, while the interior of the business market showed a moderate demand for choice goods, and prices were of course high. The supply was great but the demand was even greater than the supply. Turkey brought from 55c to 60c

and even higher for choice birds, while geese ranged from 50c to 60c. It was asked by some sellers, but this high figure did not lead to business. Butter sold at 15c to 20c, the latter being the ruling price

for other classes of provisions no change

was made.

The grain market was almost neglected;

quotations may be considered as follows:

SUNDAY MORNING.—The Ottawa Times of Monday, 25th inst. says: "Mr. Blake came to town on Saturday, left early (Sunday) for the County of Prescott, where he will deliver a public address on the subject of the election of a President of the United States, at the residence of Mr. S. J. McLean, at 11 A.M. on Sunday."

BELLEVILLE HIGH SCHOOL.

The semi-annual examination of the pupils attending this institution, took place on Friday the 22nd inst. in the presence of a goodly number of the parents and others interested in the cause of education.

At the corresponding session in midwinter, two days are ordinarily set apart for these purposes. On this occasion the work was compressed into one day.

On opening the proceedings, the Principal submitted a programme embracing a wide range of subjects, several of which were necessarily omitted from want of time.

To avoid interruptions from a promiscuous assembly of the parents, the examination was restricted exclusively for the exercises into which the classes successively passed.

The first class brought forward the Senior Latin. Subject of study: the first book of the Odes of Horace. The passage having been selected, the Principal translated it with ease and elegance, showing an enlarged acquaintance with the idiomatic structure of the language with the examples interspersed of Greek construction and with minutiae of analysis.

On the subject of the Odes, the answers were prompt and accurate. The Senior Latin class manifested considerable aptitude, and showed plainly that a substantial foundation has been laid. As it is now required by him to choose either a classical or a purely English and Commercial course in the High School, the number studying Latin is not so large as on former occasions.

The French class was next presented. Although their attainments in that department are purely of an elementary character, the scholars exhibited manifest enthusiasm over an acquired familiarity with the rudiments of the language, which gave promise of proficiency at a future date.

PRIMER'S CLASS.—The annual ball of the Main Street Company was held on Saturday night instead of Wednesday, as announced in our Saturday's edition.

THE TRACK.—We learn that Saturday's evening exercise going west, ran off the track about two miles west of Kingston. No one was injured, but four cars were left in the ditch.

THE GALE.—The storm on Saturday last did much damage to property. The roof of the Masonic Hall in Shannonville was blown off, and the roof of the tower on Blocker Street Church, in Belleville, was blown off, and lodged upon the roof of the building.

ALARM OF FIRE.—On Saturday night, during the prevalence of the storm, a fire in the house of Mr. J. H. McLean, in the chimney of a house on Pineapple Street, in rear of the market, and was quickly subdued without troubling the firemen.

CHRISTMAS TREES.—We understand that there will be a merry time at the Institution for the deaf and dumb to-night. Santa Claus will visit the Institution, and distribute a number of presents to the pupils who will gather around a Christmas Tree on the occasion.

HANDSOME PRESENTATION.—The social in Rev. Mr. Wild's Church last evening was largely attended, and was in every respect successful. The congregation evidently appreciated the services of their worthy pastor, for in addition to the many tangible tokens of their respect he has received, last evening the Rev. gentleman was presented with a handsome Christmas gift in the shape of a purse containing $10.

ST. JOHN'S DAY.—To-morrow being the anniversary of St. John the Evangelist, will be celebrated by the Masonic Fraternity in the usual manner. The Lodge will meet and install their officers, after which they will march in procession headed by the band of the 15th Battalion to the Methodist Episcopal Church, where a sermon will be preached by Bro. the Rev. Dr. Wild.

CHRISTMAS.—The Christmas holiday passed off this year in a very quiet manner. The weather was mild, and a large number of persons improved the opportunity by having a sleigh ride, whilst services were held in the churches, the interior of which were decorated in the usual manner, and were tolerably attended. There were very quiet at night, though now and again a man was to be seen in an extremely "jolly" condition.

MILITARY.—The Canada Gazette of Saturday announces that owing to the resignation of Lt. Col. Achey, commanding the fourth Military District being accepted, Lt. Col. Jackson, Brigade Major, has been appointed to the vacant position.

SUDDEN DEATH.—On Saturday night last a man named William Fletcher, a blacksmith employed in Brown's foundry, came to his death under the following circumstances: Deceased, who suffered from asthma, had been drinking heavily, and was found lying, about 8:30 o'clock in the evening, on the sidewalk near the railway crossing on the Clinton road, almost senseless.

His friends, who were with him, threw him upon a stretcher, and called for a doctor. The doctor, who arrived at 9:15, pronounced him dead, and the body was taken to the morgue.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 27.—A telegram from

St. Louis, Mo., says that Christmas Day

witnessed a premeditated outbreak of the

Klux at Marshall, Saline Co., Mo., and vicinity. A large number of armed men turned out in pursuit of the negroes in the district. Patrols were placed near town, and every traveler was halted and questioned.

All business was suspended, and no vehicle permitted to pass. It is not known how many negroes were killed, but a man who fled

from Marshall at eleven o'clock, p. m., saw

the dead bodies of five, two hanging by the neck and three lying on the road. He also saw one terribly wounded, having his shoulder

shot away. At the latest account a crowd of armed men were starting out, and saying

they would clear out every negro in the country.

RUTLAND, Vt., Dec. 27.—On Christmas

Day a bloody affray took place at East Arden

in a drinking saloon. Farwell &

Lawrence, the keepers of the saloon, about five persons, two of whom had died since and two more are mortally wounded. The affair excited intense excitement. Farwell &

Lawrence are under arrest.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—The Tribune this morning says it has trustworthy information which leaves no doubt that Wm. M. Tweed has fled from justice, and is either in rapid flight from the country or already concealed from the Sheriff's officers somewhere in the city until new boulevards come forward to save him from imprisonment. The chances are that the Metropolitan will know him no more unless he returns in fear, compulsion to join his comrades in crime within the gloomy

walls of Ludlow Street gaol.

DESPATCHES TO 4 P. M.

LONDON, Dec. 27, 1 p. m.—The news

bulletin from Sandringham today reports that

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales

passed a quiet night, but that convalescence

is retarded by a painful affection above the left hip, accompanied by feverishness. No uneasiness is felt as to the Prince's condition,

but regret and disappointment at the slowness of his recovery are general. Hope had been raised that he would be able to go out

before the end of the holidays, and preparations for public rejoicings had been made.

The non-realization of these expectations throws a damper on the festivities of the season.

The Queen returns to Sandringham today.

The mail steamer from the Cape of Good

Hope has arrived, and brings accounts of the manner in which the announcement of the African territory to the British possessions

was received by the inhabitants.

The intelligence that the treaty had been finally concluded produced great excitement.

Mr. Brand, the President of the Free

States, had issued a formal protest against the transfer of the diamond fields to Great Britain.
